Taft Defends Ballinger.

"Where a man has been unjustly treated, as Secretary Ballinger has been, n the manner pointed out in the letter, a copy of which I send you, it is my duty as his chief, with the knowledge that I have of his official integrity and his lack of culpability, to declare it to the public and do him justice, howver great inconvenience may arise in

"I have been greatly disturbed by the public discussion carried on in the press, from which it is inferred that your bureau is arrayed against the Interior Department, and that material is being furnished for both sides from official sources. I was especially distressed by McHarg's reported interviews, though I believe he now repudiates any criticism or siurring remarks concerning President Roosevelt. He was an efficient officer, but he talked too much and wildly, and his withdrawal relieved me.

"I must bring public discussion between departments and bureaus to an end. It is most demoralizing and subversive of governmental discipline and efficiency. I want you to help me in this. I can enforce team-work if I can keep public servants out of newspaper discussion."

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during disturbed conditions of the money or stock markets. First deed of trust notes (first mort-gages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "gilt edge" investments. They do not depend upon the mancial responsibility of individuals or corrorations for their stability and are exempt form taxation as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from $509 upward. Send for booklet "Concerning Loans and Investments."
